About the D2L Student Training

Last Modified on 08/05/2026 11:16 am CDT

Students who are taking any fully online or hybrid courses are required to complete the D2L Student Training. They must pass the cumulative quiz, with a score of 80% or better, before they can access their online or hybrid courses. Students who have not successfully completed the training have a “hold” on their D2L account – the hold is released when the D2L Student Training Quiz is completed with an 80% or better score.

NOTE: Students can retake the quiz repeatedly until they attain a score of 80% or better.

Once your training quiz is completed with a score of 80% or better, your completion certificate appears as an Announcement and the hold is released.

What Is the D2L Student Training?

A short D2L training (about 1 hour) that prepares students to understand:

- What is different about taking courses online versus in the classroom.
- How to use and navigate D2L.
- How to access course content and submit coursework in D2L.
- How to be successful when taking classes online.

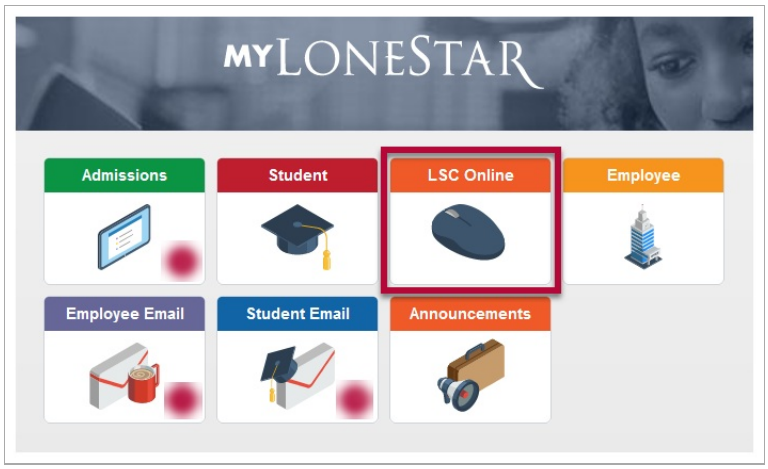

Who Should Complete the D2L Student Training?

- All students enrolled in fully online and hybrid courses are required to complete the D2L Student Training before being able to access their courses in D2L.
- The D2L Student Training is designed for quick completion—usually in less than an hour.
